Anger at the Conservative 'garden tax'

Jeremy Hilton and Isabel Brazil are angry at the Conservative 'garden tax'.

The Lib Dems are exposing the Conservative garden waste bin tax – hitting thousands of Gloucester residents in the pocket.

When the annual £36 fee was introduced it was to cover the cost of running the scheme.

Lib Dem councillors have discovered the city council is making £110,000 a year profit from collecting garden waste.

This equates to a £6 overcharge on every one of the 18,000 garden waste bins in Gloucester.

Kingsholm & Wotton Lib Dem

council candidate Isabel Brazil said: "The Conservatives have hit responsible householders who recycle garden waste with a garden tax.

"This is taxation by the back door on local people who care about our environment."

Councillor Jeremy Hilton added: "Lib Dem councillors tried to reduce the annual fee by £5 to £31 a year as part of our budget proposals but the Conservative and Labour councillors on the city council voted this down."
